Brief Profile: Pradeep Kumar Yadav, an Assistant Professor at the School of Law & Legal Studies, S.AG.E. University, is a dynamic educator who fosters intellectual growth among his students. He started his academic journey at the prestigious Allahabad University, where he did his BA. He further pursued his LL. B (Hons.) from the celebrated BHU. With a specialization in Criminal Law, Pradeep's expertise is complemented by his deep interest in jurisprudence, shaped significantly by Professor R.K. Murli from Banaras Hindu University (BHU), whom he considers a role model in the field of academics. He completed his LL.M in Criminology from Devi Ahilyabai University, Indore. Currently pursuing his Ph.D. from the National Law Institute University (NLIU), Pradeep's dedication to academia is evident. His academic journey includes a Master's degree in English from the prestigious Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU), reflecting his commitment to excellence in education.

In addition to his academic pursuits, Pradeep is a multifaceted individual with a passion for sports. His background as a sportsman underscores his discipline and teamwork, qualities that he brings to both the academic and extracurricular facets of his life.

Furthermore, Pradeep is celebrated for his diverse talents. He is recognized for his prowess in poetry, which captivates audiences, and his oratory skills, which inspire and motivate. Students eagerly anticipate his classes not only for the knowledge he imparts but also for the personal connection he establishes with them. Pradeep's influence extends beyond the classroom; he is regarded as a mentor and role model, guiding students not only in their academic endeavors but also in life.
