

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION

International Women's Day was celebrated with great fun and flare on 8th March 2022 at Royal SAGE Hall, SAGE University Bhopal. The event named 'Vama' was celebrated to honour the contribution of women in shaping this world and to create awareness about gender equality for a healthy society. This day brings many things for women – a cause for celebration, a reason to pause and remember the most loved and admired women of our life. Ms Kiran Agrawal Honourable Chairperson, SAGE Group and President True SAGE Foundation was invited as the Chief Guest. The event was graced by Dr. Rakhi Dubey (Dance Director), Dr. Sushma Srivastava (Artist retired from NCERT), Ms Kamla Rawat (DSP and Sports, International Judo Coach) and Ms Varsha Solanki who were invited as the Guest of Honour.

The event commenced by evoking blessings of Goddess Saraswati. Honourable Vice Chancellor Dr. V. K. Jain had welcomed and introduced all the eminent guests of the day. The event moved further with each guests sharing their life experiences with the audience. Ms Kamla Rawat in her address said that there should be a balance between career and family and without a family support a women can't achieve success. She also emphasized that girls should know how to defend themselves and to be careful about crimes against women Ms Varsha Solanki, further added, gender equality is very important for a healthy society. Honourable Chairperson, SAGE Group, Mrs Kiran Agrawal suggested that this world become a better place when each day is celebrated like a Women's day when their efforts are honoured and appreciated. There was a dance performance by the students of School of Performing Arts which followed by a prize distribution ceremony. The highlight of the event was a Fashion Show on the theme of "Panchatatwam" in which students of various Schools of the University participated.

Holi Celebration

Holi, a festival of color, joy, harmony and delight was celebrated at SUB campus on 17th March 2022. The academic courtyard was filled with fun and frolic of enthusiastic faculties and students who celebrated this vibrant festival with safe organic herbal Holi colors. The occasion was graced by the presence of eminent guests Honorable Ms Kiran Agarwal Chairperson, SAGE Group & President, True SAGE foundation, Respected Mr. Manish Gupta and Respected Mr. N. Raghuraman.

Honorable Ms Kiran Agarwal in her speech told everyone that festival Holi commemorates the victory of good over evil, brought about by the burning and destruction of the evil demon named Holika. It teaches everyone to follow good conduct in life and believe in the virtue of being truthful and honest. The festival marks the end of winter and the abundance of the upcoming spring harvest season. Honorable Vice Chancellor Sir in his address said that Holi is a festival of new hope, new beginning and new opportunities as well as to forget, forgive and start afresh. Respected DG sir Dr. Ashish Dutta stated that the University is committed to follow green and global practices, and in that view safe organic herbal Holi colors are arranged for today's celebration. Everyone welcomed spring, season of hope with songs and dances. The bright colors which signify energy, life and joy were the major highlights of this vivid and lively celebration.
